

eBook Terms and Conditions

General Terms and Conditions for Your Data Use

1. Scope of terms and conditions

The general terms and conditions for data use apply when downloading the following eBook.

2. Terms and conditions are binding

The user agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of data use specified below.

3. Client register

The contact information of data users will be retained in the secure place.

4. Purpose of use and disposal of data

PAteam undertakes to use the data only for the purpose stated, after which the data will be securely erased.

5. Data security

PAteam undertakes to provide a sufficient level of data security in the storage, use and transfer of data. PAteam ensures that no third parties have access to the data.

6. Data protection and research ethics

When using the data, PAteam will not compromise the confidentiality and privacy of individuals or bodies connected to the data.

PAteam will preserve the confidentiality of information also when publishing results obtained from the data.

PAteam undertakes to comply with specific restrictions set out for the use of a particular dataset, if there are any.

7. Copyright and citation

The data and its original creators shall be cited in all publications and presentations for which the data has been used. The original creators of the data retain the copyright and related intellectual property rights in the data.